1. Read these guidelines

These rules maintain the sanctity and discipline of the Gurdwara Sahib. The official Punjabi poster is also available from the Gurdwara.

1. Barat arrival time

The Barat must arrive between 12:00 PM and 12:30 PM. The bride and groom must be seated in the presence of Sri Guru Granth Sahib Ji by 12:30 PM. Delay beyond this time may result in cancellation of the Anand Karaj program.

2. Doli and vacating premises

The bride, groom, family members and all guests must vacate the Gurdwara premises by 4:30 PM so evening Diwan, Seva and other bookings are not disrupted. If premises are not vacated, management may switch off lights/sound and ask guests to leave.

3. Rules for Barat arrival

No noise-making, DJs, car horns, firecrackers, colour smoke, throwing of flowers, or any rowdy behaviour is allowed during Barat arrival. Action will be taken against violators.

4. Gurdwara parking

Wedding processions (Barat), chariots (Rath), horses (Ghori) or Doli are not permitted inside the Gurdwara Sahib parking area.

5. Anand Karaj, Shagan and other programs

Inside the Diwan Hall, in the presence of Sri Guru Granth Sahib Ji or after Sukhasan: photoshoots, video shoots, Vadhai ceremonies and selfies are strictly prohibited.

2. Tick to acknowledge

- ☐ I have read and agree to follow all Anand Karaj guidelines above (arrival by 12:30 PM, vacating by 4:30 PM, parking and Diwan Hall restrictions).
- ☐ I understand the Anand Karaj must be entered in the Gurdwara diary. Completing this form is a required step — the booking is not complete until both are done.
